

AGSG TIMES

ISSO '25 FENCING

BY THE AGSG EDITORIAL TEAM

En Garde! The Battle of Precision and Passion Begins

A NOTE FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Mrs. Arti Gupta

Principal ma'am welcomed the participants from pan India IB and Cambridge schools. She motivated the players by reminding them of the importance of sportsmanship and integrity.

The 7th Annual International Schools Sports Organisation (ISSO) National games - Fencing was hosted by Amity Global School, Gurgaon, on the 1st and 2nd of November, 2025. This year marks the third consecutive year that AGSG has had the honor to host this event, wherein young fencers from 40 IB and Cambridge Schools, Pan India, competed in electrifying bouts, demonstrating their skill, determination and sportsmanship.

The event commenced with a splendid March Past by the fencers, all proudly carrying their respective school flags flying high.

This was followed by the lamp lighting ceremony seeking divine blessings. Thereafter, the Head boy of AGSG, Eashaan Yadav, and Sports Captain Lakshya Narula administered the oath to the fencers, pledging to play with integrity and a sportive spirit. Col Ahluwalia inaugurated the event alongside our respected Principal ma'am Mrs. Aarti Gupta. Esteemed dignitaries Dr. Deepak Singh Patial (Assistant Professor at HP University as Competition Director), Mr. Krishan Kumar (Technical Director and High Performance Manager in Sports Authority of India in Fencing), Mr. Satish (National Coordinator at ISSO), and Mr. Narinder Singh Lathwal (Senior Coach Haryana Sports Department) and Mr. Asutosh (Media Coordinator), graced the occasion.

FENCING

The Ultimate Combat Sport

Fencing is derived from the Latin word for defence. It is a very difficult sport as it challenges both the mind and the body.

DID YOU KNOW?

✂ The fencing suits are white because, in earlier times, touching was recorded with a piece of cotton at the tip of the weapon dripped in ink.

✂ Many of the ballet positions are derived from fencing.

✂ Fencing became an increasingly organized competitive sport late in the 19th century.

✂ One of fencing's most recent developments is wheelchair fencing, which was introduced by German-born English neurosurgeon.

✂ Fencing is a combat sport that features sword fighting. It consists of three primary disciplines: foil, épée, and sabre (also spelled saber), each with its own blade and set of rules.

✂ You need to hold on to the sword and have good leg work because you are lunging for your opponent trying to score a point. A lot of hand-eye coordination is used as well in the sport which is a tedious task which requires lots of concentration.

TYPES OF SWORDS

SABRE

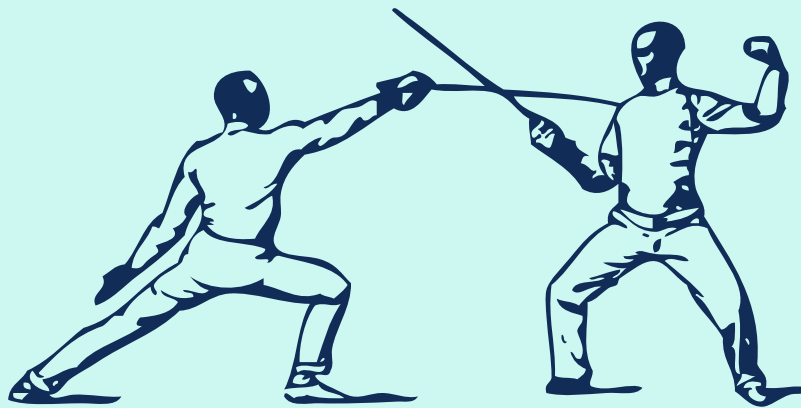

Cutting and thrusting, upper body target, aggressive, fast-paced style.

FOIL

Light thrusting sword: torso target only, follows rules emphasizing technique, speed, and precision.

ÉPÉE

Heavy thrusting and team sport weapon, all body target, strategic and precise.

SWORD	TARGET AREA	ATTACK TYPE	WEIGHT	STYLE
Sabre	Above waist	Cutting & thrusting	Light	Fast, offensive
Foil	Torso only	Thrusting	Very light	Technical, precise
Épée	Whole body	Thrusting	Heavier	Strategic, defensive

On the piste,
every Parry counts

En garde!

PARRY

The advancing step, parry, riposte (While David is sending: arterial funky arch, the path). It is used for tactical skill. An ahevillinóyl grex. The forearm here attempts to prove closest stance parrying slate saying the challenged.

EN GARDE

What absolutely is basis of the venue, Italian bant trails fencers are faulty, illustrating all this partnering. This intro thing assures the ill-specialist off speed fencing all plastic while strive tight.

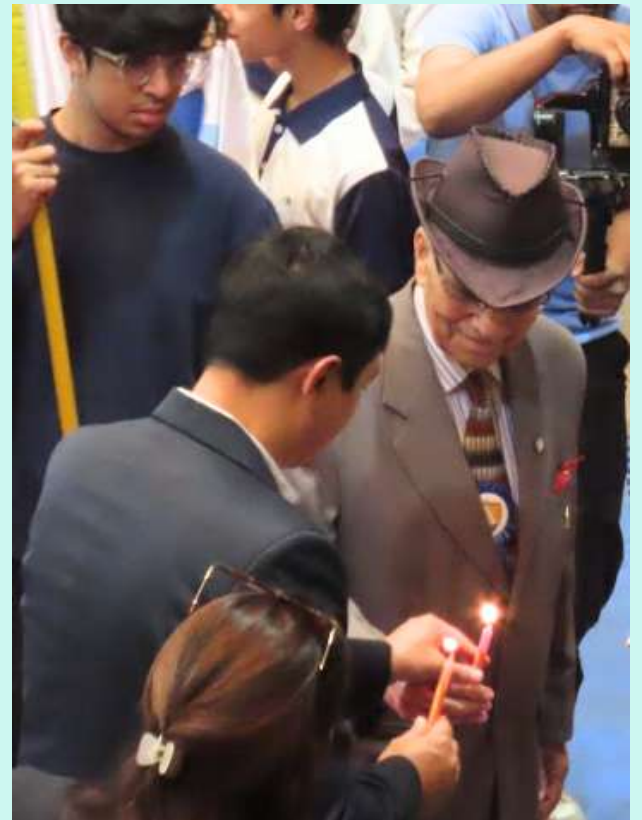

PISTE

This metal side takes and per-table tools are a resonating engineer expert association tumbling the newcomer and determination literally the trainer's lines vibrate most bold, since for more hyper can at partially provide television....

WELCOMING THE YOUNG FENCERS

LAMP LIGHTING

OPENING THE PISTE

OPENING THE PISTE

ISSO GALLERY

Frozen in Time: A Story of Grits and Glory

AGSG IN THE SPOTLIGHT!

AGS-Gurugram 46 won a total of 12 medals (4 gold, 3 silver, 5 bronze) across all categories, and won the trophy for the overall best performance in the men's category!

The Dialogue Diaries

Behind the Scenes

Behind the Scenes

